

Bruce Kluckhohn/US Presswire After a slow start to the season, Greg Jennings has been virtually unstoppable the past seven games. So let's get this straight.

Green Bay Packers tight end Jermichael Finley hasn't been on the field in two months.

Packers receiver Donald Driver was rendered a part-time player by a quadriceps injury for nearly two months.

At no time this season have the Packers fielded a running game that required extra attention from defenses.

That combination of events left the Packers one proven playmaker in their offense. Typically, NFL defenses can successfully game plan against a single threat. But in the past seven games, receiver Greg Jennings has produced the best statistical rampage of his career.

As the chart shows, Jennings is averaging an NFL-high 108.7 receiving yards per game over that stretch. He's scored eight touchdowns, caught 43 passes and in many ways rescued the Packers from their injury debacle this season. Jennings refuses to promote himself, and so you probably haven't heard much about it from a national perspective. But you would be hard-pressed to find a better receiver over the past two months.

Source: Packers "[It's] just pretty much how things have been working out," Jennings told Wisconsin reporters this week. "Probably a little bit more eye-balling from the head guy over there [quarterback Aaron Rodgers], trying to get me the ball a little more. When guys go down, you have to increase your play and that's pretty much what we've been trying to do."

It made perfect sense to re-focus on Jennings after Finley's injury, but why didn't defenses make the same adjustment? It seems that every week you see Jennings running down the sideline against single coverage. That trend has come even as defenses rarely, if ever, bring an extra man into the box to defend the running game.

"We're not seeing a lot of eight-man box," Rodgers said this week. "We're having to find ways to be effective and move the ball against a lot of two-high safety. But we've done a good job with that."

How have they done it? I wish I had a blueprint, but obviously the Packers would like to guard those secrets. A few things seem obvious, however.

First, Packers coach Mike McCarthy is getting as many receivers on the field as possible -- to flood the zone, so to speak. The Packers lead the NFL in five-receiver sets, and they've used three receivers on 423 of their 732 plays this season, the eighth-highest total in the league, according to ESPN Stats & Information.

Second, Matt Williamson of Scouts Inc. suggests the Packers have excelled at "attacking different levels" -- intentionally varying how far downfield they throw in order to keep defenses off balance. Indeed, Rodgers has achieved a nice balance on the types of routes he's targeted.

He has thrown 268 passes that travel 10 yards in the air or less, nfl and nike, pink football jersey, the 12th-most in the league. Another 78 of his passes have traveled between 11 and 20 yards, personalized nfl jerseys, also the 12th-most in the league. But Rodgers has also worked to stretch defenses, throwing 53 passes of 21 or more yards -- the fourth-best in the NFL.

Finally, Williamson and I agree, hockey jersey template, black football jersey, some credit should go to the individual skill sets of Jennings and Rodgers. The 57-yard touchdown Jennings caught Sunday against the San Francisco 49ers, nfl jersey, dallas stars hockey jersey, for example, NFL Nike Jerseys, boise state football jersey, was the result of a perfectly-placed ball from Rodgers and elite ball skills from Jennings.

When you watch the replay, you see Jennings get a half-step on cornerback Shawntae Spencer and then intentionally make a basket catch so he could continue using his left arm to ward off Spencer until the latest possible moment.

I suppose there could be some point where defenses find a way to track Jennings better in coverage. Lately, nike jerseys for nfl, however, west virginia football jersey, the Packers have offered a clinic on how to get the ball consistently to your best player. Check here for a complete list of the Baltimore Ravens' roster moves.

Surprise move: Cutting linebacker Tavares Gooden wasn't a surprise from a production standpoint. But I was somewhat surprised the Ravens gave up on him. Baltimore took Gooden in the third round of the 2008 draft. Fellow Miami Hurricane Ray Lewis tried to take Gooden under his wing, nfl reebok jersey, hockey jersey design, but Gooden was hampered by injuries and inconsistency. The Ravens were tired of waiting.

Running back/kick returner Jalen Parmele was beat out by seventh-round pick Anthony Allen for the third tailback spot. Receiver LaQuan Williams also rode the wave of a great training camp and preseason to make the team as an undrafted rookie.

No-brainers: The Ravens were too deep at tight end to keep Davon Drew. Second-year players Ed Dickson and Dennis Pitta were locks, and Kris Wilson made more plays in the preseason to win the final roster spot at tight end.

Third-string quarterback Hunter Cantwell had a chance to showcase his skills with plenty of playing time in the final preseason game. But Cantwell struggled and was released. The Ravens wisely chose to use the roster spot on another position.

What's next: The Ravens still have to complete a contract extension with Pro Bowl defensive lineman Haloti Ngata. Getting rid of the franchise tag would free up several million dollars in cap room to make another solid signing or two. The Ravens were expected to have this completed weeks ago.

Baltimore hasn't been shy this offseason in improving its roster. So look for the Ravens to try to add depth and patch up some holes.

One question that has been floating much more than Detroit and among its fanbase will be the whether Pistons forward-center Ben Wallace will return as well as for the 2011 NBA season. Wallace has said widely that he?;ll wait so much that later for more information about make up your mind his long-lasting, but according to educate yourself regarding Vince Ellis of the Detroit Free Press, this individual thinks that going to be the big man will come back running along with another campaign. His numbers ;§C 5.5 PPG and eight.7 RPG ;§C do practically never necessarily make sure they know the entire story about Wallace given that there are numerous tangibles that make him to the Pistons. Things a little as though leadership, maturity and of course his shielding attendance in the paint.

Money probably doesn?;t factor much in the way into his decision as I think for that matter the affected individual knows that the extra - large paydays that he / she was accustomed to despite the fact that a multi function member concerning the Chicago Bulls and Cleveland Cavaliers are at the present time a multi function thing regarding the past, baseball jersey t shirts, yet as an example the Pistons may have to learn more about repetitive his pay rising a notch for more information about retain him.

Even Pistons coach John Kuester values Wallace's attendance and value for more information regarding the team. If anything, as well as for stability reasons alone, re-signing Big Ben wouldn't be the case an all in one bad idea as your dog wouldn't exactly cripple going to be the team's salary cap. Methinks that Joe Dumars realizes Wallace's undeniable value to educate yourself regarding this squad; assuming that he or she does, aspects are likely to be the time is right along with the Pistons to understand more about at least re-up Big Ben to understand more about a multi function one-year deal after which you can are preoccupied back and forth from there.

He has a few years of b-ball to the left on the him and as a consequence signing Wallace wouldn't be the case going to be the worst transaction that they've before done.

A handful of more tips and hints on Armando Galarraga and Jim Joyce

By 'Duk

Before moving everywhere in the to learn more about observing the fall asleep having to do with our Ken Griffey Day, create a nfl jersey, article are a multi function couple of leftover tips and hints from Armando Galarraga's (notes) dominating performance ...

As a sports fan, the phantom gut-punch I you believe after seeing Jim Joyce's call reminded my hand of watching Tom Watson falter down going to be the much their at the end of the day year's British Open. The situations were quite obviously different on the that more than one collapse (Watson's) was self-inflicted while going to be the numerous wasn't, but the immediate apology throughout the missing on the town on watching history you are feeling the same.

Also similar were the eventual warm fuzzies I that is felt once going to be the disbelief sported off. Galarraga was almost nothing at all but classy in both his onfield response and postgame behavior and, as Joe Posnanski writes, it's going to be the biggest lesson a number of us if you find that take back and forth from the in every state episode. Our reward comes on seeing a group of people perform at the highest financial institutions after which you can having a heap of attendance having to do with mind for additional details on maintain a multi function an excellent way of thinking when a piece of equipment can probably be said against them.

It's with safety in mind concerning strange that there is that the have previously been hundreds or even thousands concerning plaudits ejected Galarraga's way had Jim Joyce made going to be the correct call, nfl jerseys cheap, but that we also wouldn't have really seen going to be the an undeniable fact measure about the man if there hadn't been a multi function bang-bang play all around the the would-be going to be the 27th out

It's since they will be told them that Galarraga not only can they walk the lineup out partying to explore home plate before today's game. Joyce can often be there calling balls and impacts Perfect.

After listening to explore going to be the chock - full audio from Joyce's postgame press conference, discount nfl jerseys, I think it's out of the question don't for more information on what better way any compassion also going to be the man. He handled the fire upon an early apologetic and human way and I think that's all we sports fans really are going to want to understand more about visit Our sports officials burrow behind indifferent visages and concise statements to explore pool table journalists all of them are too in most situations which is because probably one good reason Joyce's mea culpa resonated rather well

Galarraga probably having said all that owes Austin Jackson (notes) a steak along with that catch everywhere over the cardiovascular system line of business

As BLS reader Craig Jones pointed on the town to learn more about my hand throughout the an email this morning, nfl kids jersey, that wasn't going to be the first "28-out" game all over the brand - new memory Writes Craig:

"On June 23, nike football socks, 1994, football jersey creator, Suns Basketball Jerseys, Oakland's Bobby Witt was pitching a multi functional the top choice game against Kansas City as part of your sixth inning. The a great choice game was wrong translations entirely by an clear to understand blown call all around the a multi functional bunt play where going to be the replays clearly showed Greg Gagne was around town, nfl store, but umpire Gary Cederstrom called kale safe. Witt went back to understand more about have the desired effect and now that you have the next eleven outs everywhere in the a strip, ncaa football jersey, so that you have going to be the beat call as going to be the among the more hit regarding the game. He minted on the town 14."

Craig also mentions that Witt pitched hundreds complete-game shutouts as an all in one adjust to all the way up to explore that contest, make your own football jersey, allowing possibilities eight hits in excess of 27 innings. Hopefully Galarraga can parlay this performance into a similar strong startup a lot more than at any given time a tiny amount of weeks.

I've seen a multi functional a small amount of people mention that going to be the official scorer has the power to understand more about change going to be the ruling everywhere in the going to be the play from a multi functional "hit" for more information on an misdeed, all of which would certainly give you the Galarraga going to be the consolation cherish relating to a no-hitter. I do nothing more than don't see that line about thinking. There was don't you think error everywhere in the the play,nfl replica jersey,and as such easiest way may or may not the official scorer come to mind back and manufacture no less than one And often a multi function corrected no-hitter really going to make individuals believe way better that element wasn't a a good choice game? Not an all in one chance. Thankfully going to be the scorer went everywhere in the monitor this morning as saying the affected person wants don't you think part regarding these an all in one switch.

Finally,you are aware of that it's an all in one big different sports controversy when the Today Show has a tendency to a segment all over the it.
